READ AND YOU WILL LEARN

That the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice endorse and recommend, in the strongest terms possible, each and every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, "liver complaint," torpid liver, or biliousness, chronic bowel affections, and all catarrhal diseases of whatever region, name or nature. It is also a specific remedy for all such chronic or long standing cases of catarrhal affections and their resultants, as bronchial, throat and lung diseases (except consumption) accompanied with severe coughs. It is not so good for acute colds and coughs, but for lingering, or chronic cases it is especially efficacious in producing perfect cures. It contains Black Cherry bark, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot, Stone root, Mandrake root and Queen's root—all of which are highly praised as remedies for all the above mentioned affections by such eminent medical writers and teachers as Prof. Bartholow, of Jefferson Med. College; Prof. Hare, of the Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago, and scores of others equally eminent in their several schools of practice.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes, that has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any number of ordinary testimonials. Open publicity of its formula on the bottle wrapper is the best possible guaranty of its merits. A glance at this published formula will show that "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no poisonous or harmful agents and no alcohol—chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Glycerine is entirely unobjectionable and besides is a most useful ingredient in the cure of all stomach as well as bronchial, throat and lung affections. There is the highest medical authority for its use in all such cases. The "Discovery" is a concentrated glyceric extract of native, medicinal roots and is safe and reliable.

A booklet of extracts from eminent, medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients mailed free on request. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

SOFTNESS OF SEALSKIN.

Is Rivaled by Human Hair Where Dandruff Is Eradicated.

Sealskin is admired the world over for its softness and gloss; and yet the human hair is equally as soft and glossy when healthy; and the radical cause of all hair trouble is dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite that saps the vitality of the hair at its root. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that is fatal to the dandruff germ. Without dandruff there is no falling hair, but a luxuriant growth of glossy, soft hair is certain. Scouring the scalp won't cure dandruff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thousands of women owe their beautiful suits of hair to Newbro's Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

VIRGINIA INDUSTRIES.

The census report on manufactures in Virginia for the year 1905 shows that for each of the principal items of manufacture the increase was higher in the rural than in the urban districts. Over the census of 1900 there was a total of 60 3 per cent. in the capital, of 37 per cent. in the value of product, 2.12 per cent. in wage-earners and 37.8 per cent. in amount of wages.

In every industry the percentage of establishments operated by incorporated companies is greater than that of establishments controlled by individuals. Incorporated companies in each industry, except flour and grist mills, reported the largest percentages of wage-earners and value of products. The importance of this form of ownership is particularly emphasized in the statistics of the manufacture of fertilizers, in which industry establishments of this class returned 95 6 per cent. of the capital, 92.7 per cent. of the number of wage-earners, 94 per cent. of the wages paid and 92 9 per cent. of the total value of products.

Although the individual establishments constituted 50.1 per cent. of the total number, they represented but 6.7 per cent. of the capital invested, employed only 12.9 per cent. of the wage-earners, paid 11.5 per cent. of the wages and reported 11.9 per cent. of the value of products. On the other hand, incorporated companies, which represented 84.3 per cent. of the capital, controlled 22 per cent. of the establishments, gave employment to 74 4 per cent. of the wage-earners, paid 76 9 per cent of the wages and reported 73 6 per cent. of the total value of products for the State.

Firms owned 27.4 per cent. of the establishments, reported 7.9 per cent. of the capital, employed 12.8 per cent of the wage-earners and reported 13.9 per cent. of the total value of products.

The largest percentages of the number of wage-earners and of the value of products reported by corporations were for Newport News, these percentages being 98.8 and 97.7, respectively, of the total; while the smallest corresponding percentages were for Portsmouth, being 18.1 and 22.8, respectively. In the State as a whole and in every city, except Portsmouth and Manchester, over one-half of the capital, average number of wage-earners, cost of materials and value of products was reported by incorporated companies.

KILLED TWO PATIENTS.

A terrible tragedy was perpetrated in the Hillside Home, Scranton, Pa., yesterday afternoon, which one insane patient killed two of the inmates and mortally wounded one of the keepers.

The murderer is Ignatz Krewzyp, a deaf and dumb Pole, who was not regarded as dangerous. He was given work in one of the wards with two women, also insane patients, Mrs. Ann Golden, a widow, fifty-three years old, and Ann Van Valen, aged 58 years. The three were moving some cots under the direction of Keeper Richard Davies, who left the room momentarily.

Seizing the opportunity afforded by the keeper's absence, the insane man ran into the doctor's office, and there picked up an amputating knife, with a blade about ten inches long, and ran up stairs to the upper floor. Keeper Davies ran after Krewzyp, and the latter turned upon him and buried the knife in the keeper's chest. He then continued upstairs and attacked the two women. He stabbed Mrs. Golden in the chest, the knife piercing her body twice, and then stabbed Mrs. Van Valen once.

Floyd Beemer, the son of the Superintendent, had followed the man, and after his attack on the women knocked the knife out of his hands. Both women died soon afterward.

Mrs. Golden lived in Elkdale, and had been an inmate for nine years. Mrs. Van Valen was a resident of Scranton, and had been in the home for four years.

Krewzyp is thirty-five years of age, and was one of the most powerful inmates of the institution. While not employed as a trusty and given the freedom of the grounds, he had been given work every day in the insane department, being regarded as thoroughly inoffensive and harmless.

The superintendent cannot explain why he should have been subject to such a violent and sudden passion. After the deed was committed, he jabbered in a vehement manner, and no sign or motion could be obtained from him. He is now a raving maniac. Davies is not expected to live.

Chased Diamond Thief.

Two thousand people, shoppers and showgirls, messenger boys and ticket speculators, chased a well-dressed man through one edge of the tenderloin, in New York yesterday. They didn't know what he had or had not been doing, but he was running away, and that was enough for the valiant 2,000. The fight had lasted three blocks, when Policeman Cassasa got within night-stick distance of the fugitive and bowled him over. Then the whole story came out. On Tuesday a dapper young man went into the jewelry store of Frankfield & Co. and looked at some diamond studs. When he departed the clerk who had waited on him discovered that for three good stones three bogus ones had been left. Later a man answering the description of the caller at Frankfield's went into Gorham & Co.'s store and worked the same game. He got three small stones at Gorham's. Yesterday the same chap returned to Frankfield's, differently dressed, and wanted to look at diamond rings. The clerk, who says he recognized him as Tuesday's visitor, excused himself a minute, went to the telephone and called up Gorham's, the two firms having compared notes Tuesday night, and asked that the store-detective at Gorham's be sent over at once. The man waiting to see the diamond rings evidently grew suspicious, for, as the clerk left the telephone and started back, he ran out of the store. The clerk pursued him. Detective Larkin, coming down Fifth avenue at a double quick, joined in the hunt. Then the crowd took up the chase. The man ran up the avenue to Thirty-seventh street and over to Broadway, where the policeman felled him.

Five Thousand Dollar Bond Required.

Judge Thos. J. Shaw, presiding over a special term of Union County Superior Court at Monroe, N. C. entertained a motion to quash the indictments against the alleged lynches of Johnson, at Wadesboro, on the ground that they could not properly be brought into Union county. The counsel for the State excepted and appealed to the Supreme Court. The 20 defendants were held in $5,000 bonds each for their appearance at the next term of Union Superior Court, by which time a decision may have been reached by the State's highest court. The case of Zeke Lewis is the one at issue, and if the Supreme Court holds that a revision of the code by which a portion of the statute was brought forward, has the effect of annulling the provision for trying the case in another county, they will doubtless be remanded to Anson, the county in which the lynching occurred, for trial. If the court holds otherwise the cases will be heard at some future term of court in Union county.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING, JULY 19, 1906.

THE assertion is often made that in this day the line between the church and the world is about as apparent as the equator. There are many things going on around us every day to verify this. The secular department of the church is gradually displacing the spiritual, and competition, business and appeals to the world for patronage are overshadowing everything else. The tares grow rank, often towering above the wheat which struggles on in its sickly growth, while the harvest is still deferred. The Author of the Christian religion said on one occasion that every plant which the Father has not planted will be rooted up. If this be so, the reapers will have many stacks of extraneous growth to burn before they come down to the true grain, if present conditions continue. The above observations are suggested by looking at a Virginia exchange, one-half of a page of which is filled with what it calls "some of the bush meeting attractions," in which are pictures of a Chicago quartette, a female cornetist, a funny man, Capt. Hobson, of Merrimac fame, a female soloist and elocutionist, a comedian, a magician with a bunch of rings in his hands, a quartette of Virginia vocalists, a tenor singer and an evangelist. The latter may or may not feel at home in the galaxy. We are told that Christ on one occasion made a whip cord and drove people engaged in wordly pursuits from the temple at Jerusalem. Should He appear at some bush meetings the stampede would be laughable if not serious.

GOV. JOSEPH W. FOLK in addressing the retail merchants of Missouri at their convention at Jefferson City, Mo., on Tuesday, spoke against the mail-order business and favored advertising in the town papers. He said in part:

We are proud of our splendid cities and we want them to increase in wealth and population, and we also want our country towns to grow. We wish the city merchants to build up, but we also desire the country merchants to prosper. I do not believe in the mail-order citizen. If a place is good enough for a man to live in and to make his money in, it is good enough for him to spend his money. No merchant can succeed without advertising in one way or another. Patronize your town papers, build them up and they will build the town up and build you up increased trade and greater opportunities.

The Governor substantially reiterates what has often been said before on the subject and what has always been apparent to men of true business instincts A certain percentage of people, however who cannot fail to see the advantage of advertising, resort to all sorts of means to get their names or business in local papers gratis, and feel aggrieved if newspapermen gently call their attention to the fact that such are endeavoring to obtain something for nothing. Half a century ago advertising was regarded as the sine qua non of every business. At this day there is a disposition on the part of some to make the local paper a public omnibus. This class demands much from home journals, but they are the last to invest in legitimate advertising or in any other way to encourage those who spend treadmill lives in the interests of their home cities.

THE DEATH of Lady Curzon will be regretted, not only by those who were personally acquainted with her, but by the many who knew her only by reputation. All with one accord attest the fact that she was a good woman. Possessed of wealth, which enabled her to live as a princess and enjoying an exalted position, her social functions, which were often wearisome, never caused her to lose interest in the friends of her early years or those whose paths led in other directions in life. Many who knew her best say she did much good unostentatiously and quietly. The fact that she was the wife of an English Lord never caused her to forget that she was an American woman and she was proud of the land of her birth. The swirl of English society and the adorations Lady Curzon received in her adopted country seem never to have produced the effect it might have had upon others. She was the wife of a peer of the realm who justly appreciated her, and he and the motherless little ones have the sincere sympathy of the people of this country in their bereavement. Death is no respector of persons. From the beginning he has knocked at the castle and the cottage gate, and will continue to do so until the last enemy is destroyed

A DELEGATE to the State legislature from Elizabeth City county who was in Richmond yesterday said: "Down in the Tidewater section the belief is general that there will be a special session of the legislature. There is a popular demand for it, I am told, in some parts of the State. The Tidewater members of the legislature with whom I have discussed the matter are inclined to favor an extra session." As a rule the people of the other sections of the State don't go to Elizabeth City county for news and there in no good reason for a change at this time and concerning this matter. Governor Swanson, it is hoped, may be relied upon not to call an extra session of the legislature—particularly, the last one.

From Washington.

(Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)

Washington, July 19.

Over 500 bids for the Panama canal bonds to be issued by the Treasury Department have already been received, and by the time the department closes tomorrow afternoon it is expected that as many more will have come in. Many national banks are among the bidders and a number of offers have come from small investors. Secretary Shaw believes that he will sell the whole issue of $30,000,000 at between 103 and 104. Bids will be received up to the hour of 4:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. In order that the results of the sale may be known that night it is the intention of the Secretary of the Treasury to appoint a committee to open the bids, beginning at 4:30 p. m. They will be placed in a room under lock and key. The telephone will be removed and they will not be allowed communication with the outside world until their task has been completed. Under the arrangement it is expected that the tabulated bids may be made known by midnight tomorrow.

Up to 2:30 p. m. the Treasury Department has received in the neighborhood of 2,000 bids for Panama bonds.

"If Japan is successful along the lines she is now working the individuals and corporations of America that are striving for the trade of the Orient will discover that they are not competing for this trade against individuals and corporations of Japan, but that they are in commercial conflict with the Japanese nation." Such is the view of Consul-General Henry B. Miller, of Yokahama, Japan. He believes that it is the purpose of the State council of Japan to have the Japanese government protect, supervise, develop and nationalize all important industries. This has gone so far as to secure advocates for the Japanese government to furnish several million dollars to develop the industries of Manchuria. It is proposed by many that the government and private capitalists form a joint company, the government to contribute the railways, mines and other property owned in Manchuria as its share, valued, as they now stand, at about $35,000,000. The capitalists would assist in raising the working fund of some $50,000,000.

Senor Valesquez, accompanied by Dr. Hollander, called at the State Department today and reported that the outlook for a readjustment of the Dominican indebtedness is most favorable, and that they expect their plan for the payment of all the foreign claims will result in a settlement which will be agreeable to all parties concerned, the creditors, the Dominican Government and the United States.

F. Barker, an attorney of that bureau who has had charge of the affair. The prosecution of Truman K. Hunt, the man who brought the Igorrotes from the Philippines to this country and who is charged with embezzlement and withholding pay from the little brown men, will begin in a few days. It is the present plan of the War Department to have the Igorrotoes immediately taken to San Francisco and placed aboard an army transport to sail from there for the Philippines on July 25.

Suits to be Dropped.

New York, July 19—It became known today that the suits brought against the ringleaders of the McCurdy management to the Mutual Life by the trustees, of the company, will be dropped. The suits, which were brought by the Peabody, or Standard Oil, management were instituted last winter against Robert H. McCurdy, as former General Manager of the company, and against Charles H. Raymond & Co., including Louis A. Thebaud, son-in-law of the elder McGurdy. The International policy holders committee say the decision of the trustees to drop the suits substantiates the claim of the committee made at the time that the suits were not instituted and prosecuted in good faith. One of the members of the policy holders committee said that there were several members of the present board of trustees, who feared that if suits were pressed against the McCurdy's the defendants would turn against the trustees and tell some interesting tales.

Feudists Battling Again.

Beattyville, Ky., July 19.—A dastardly attempt to assassinate three of Hargis's staunchest clansmen was made about midnight Tuesday night. A shot from an unknown source was fired into a room of the second floor of the Ninaweb Inn. The room was occupied by Beech Hargis, son of James Hargis; George Spencer, his cousin, and Arch Crawford, a friend. It was preceded by a bullet, which struck the brick wall. The bullet, which entered the room, tore its way through a wooden shutter and imbedded itself in the ceiling. The point where it entered the shutter was so high it would not have struck the man had be been standing by the window. The shots were fired two minutes apart. The name of an anti-Hargis man was connected with the shooting because of the intensity of feeling.

DEATH OF LADY CURZON.

Lady Curzon, wife of Lord Curzon of Kedleston, died at the residence in London at 5:40 p. m., yesterday.

It was not until yesterday afternoon that Lady Curzon's condition gave cause for anxiety. At about noon she grew worse and two specialists were called in. They remained in attendance till the end.

Lady Curzon never quite recovered from her serious illness at Walmer Castle, Kent, in 1904, and the recent hot weather brought on a pronounced attack of general debility, ending in heart failure. Sir Thomas Barlow, physician to the King's household, and Sir William Broadbent, physician in ordinary to the King and the Prince of Wales, were in attendance upon her. The funeral will take place at Kedleston. Lord Curzon is overcome with grief.

When the news of the death of Lady Curzon became known in the West End and in the House of Commons universal sympathy was expressed.

Lady Curzon, formerly Miss May Victoria Leiter, a daughter of the late Levi Z. Leiter, multi-millionaire, of Chicago and Washington, was a member of a Maryland family. Jacob Leiter the pioneer of the family, settled on a farm in Washington, county, Md., in 1762 The town of Leitersburg was named after him. It was there that Levi Z. Leiter was born in 1834. He left his Maryland home in 1853.

After amassing a colossal fortune and making his name prominent in the commercial world, the latter year of Mr. Leiter's life were spent in Washington, which city offered a wider field for the social ambitious of his wife and daughters. Here their residence (the James G. Blaine mansion) was the scene of many brilliant functions. Later they built one of the finest homes in Washington on Dupont Circle. But their social triumphs in Washington were merely a preparation for still greater ones in New York, Newport and England.

During a stay in England Miss May Victoria Leiter met George N. Curzon, eldest son of Rev. Alfred Nathaniel Holden Curzon, fourth Baron Scarsdale. They were married in 1895, after Curzon had held the offices of assistant private secretary to the Marquis of Salisbury, under secretary of state for India and under secretary of State for foreign affairs. In 1898 Curzon was created first Baron Curzon of Kedleston, and in 1899 was appointed viceroy and governor general of India, which post he resigned in August, 1905, and was succeeded by the Earl of Minto.

Lady Curzon's social triumphs in England, in India and in her own country gave her the most important position attained by any American woman in this or the last century. Surrounded by every luxury that wealth could suggest, an acknowledged beauty and possessor of many accomplishments by travel, study and observation, she was even in her young ladyhood in Washington distinguished above other girls. Her debut at a series of large receptions given by her parents in the early nineties at their home, on Dupont Circle, in Washington, was followed by the triumphal season abroad.

Despite her social triumphs Lady Curzon sometimes was scarcely able to hide her weariness at the unending round of social functions which her husband's position compelled her to attend. Her staunch efforts to assist her husband to win the parliamentary election at Southport are fresh in many memories despite the lapse of years. It was not long after her marriage, and, although she was new to English politics, she threw herself heart and soul into the compaign. She mastered the questions at issue and proved a powerful pleader with the electors, who eventually returned her husband to the House of Commons.

Lady Curzon was the mother of three daughters—Mary Irene, born in 1896, and Cynthia Blanche, born 1898, and a third born March 20 last in London.

Lady Curzon was in her own right the possessor of a fortune of $3,000,000.

Two-cent Rate Fight.

Called upon by Judge Crump, chairman of the State Corporation Commission, to show cause why they should not place mileage books on sale, as provided by the Churchman act, the railroad companies operating in Virginia appeared before the commission and filed their answers.

The action taken Tuesday by Judge Henry Holt, of Staunton, in the case of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, in which the Churchman act was declared null and void and contrary to the Fourteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States, will in no way affect the present proceedings, although the companies will probably cite Judge Holt's decision in their effort to establish it as a precedent.

The importance of having the matter established before the Corporation Commission lies in the privilege of an appeal from the decision of the commission by either the railway companies or the Commonwealth, whereas in the dismissal of the case by Judge Holt the matter is ended, as the State cannot appeal from the Corporation Court. Consequently, unless the case be heard before the Corporation Commission there is no sure way of its reaching the Supreme Court for final decision.

The particular case under consideration was that against the Atlantic Coast Line Railway, which company filed an answer. Attorney William B. McIlwaine, who has been retained by the railroads to contest the act, read the answer of the company and then argued it section by section. He laid particular emphasis upon the Michigan decision, which figured in the case against the Baltimore and Ohio in the Staunton case before Judge Holt.

The reply in behalf of the State was made by Attorney-General Anderson, who, while he drew distinctions between the Virginia and Michigan cases, left a doubt in the minds of many whether his position is strong enough to sustain his case. The commission probably will render a decision within a few days. Those who heard the argument are of the opinion that the Churchman act will not be enforced because of the strength of the claims against its unconstitutionality.

Thomas B. Johns, 25 years old, for several months a clerk in the employ of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, was arrested yesterday and taken to Sussex county to answer to the charge of embezzling $100 from the Southern Railway while acting as station agent at Homerville.

Today's Telegraphic News

Spread of Agrarian Strike.

Warsaw, July 19.—The agrarian strike continues to spread and it now extends over several governments where the harvest is threatened with destruction, as the union of land owners refused to grant the strikers' demands. Twenty government spirit stores have been destroyed by revolutionaries.

Warsaw, July 19.—Private telegrams received here from St. Petersburg state that dragoons attacked a peaceful meeting of peasants in the village of Kecherovka, in the province of Tamboff, killing eighty of the participants. The dragoons fired several volleys into the crowd, also charging with drawn sabres.

St. Petersburg, July 19.—An infantry regiment at Lodz has refused to arrest the soldiers of a cavalry regiment at Vilna, who declined to obey their officers, despite numerous threats made by the commanders. Both regiments will be dismissed from the service and the men sent to Siberia.

Jews residing in villas near St. Petersburg are in a state of panic, as they fear another massacre is being planned.

A telegram received from Samara says that the entire town of Syzran in the government of Simbirsk is afire and that the inhabitants are fleeing toward Samara and Saratoff. Syzran is an important commercial and industrial town, located seventy miles south of Simbirsk, on the Syzran river, near its confluence with the Volga. By the census of 1897 it had a population of over 32,000.

St. Petersburg, July 19.—The attitude of the Douma on the question of issuing the proposed appeal to the people, condemning the government's agrarian communique as illegal is becoming more moderate. M. Petrunkevitch, in the name of the cadets, today, proposed that an amended appeal should be drawn in milder terms, denying the assertions of the ministers, but not appealing for revolution.

It is reported among the constitutional democrats that if the Douma manifesto to the peasantry is issued the Czar will order the Douma to be closed this evening. The barracks adjoining the Taurida Palace, where the Douma meets, are filled with picked troops.

The general impression created by this change of front is that the douma fears to begin an open contest in view of the menacing attitude assumed by the government.

Details of the agrarian disorders, which have reached such alarming proportions, especially in the Voronezh province, are beginning to reach the capital. It is now known that fifteen estates have been burned by peasant since Sunday.

A week ago a strike of laborers was brutally suppressed. Enormous bands of peasants then began to gather and marched in a procession several miles in length to sack all the estates in the neighborhood. The troops sent to oppose them were forced by the mere strength of numbers, to retire but not until there had been serious attacks on the peasants who fell by the hundred. The herds of peasants, however, refused to be checked by the destruction and the soldiers retired. Artillery is now on the way to the province. The estates of Prince Orloff and M. Tulinovsky were pillaged and burned.

Companies of the imperial guard and Ismailovsky regiment now guard the railroad stations between Moscow and St. Petersburg. In the province of Tula peasants are reported to be holding the railroad track and it is stated that 6,000 men from the government cartridge factory at Tula, which is now closed, have joined the band of peasants.

Woman Leaps from a Window.

Boston, July 19 —As the result of being overcome by the intense heat, which it is believed temporarily deranged her, Mrs. Florence L. Piza, 34, residing at 10 west 82nd street, New York city, shortly after midnight leaped from a fifth story window of the Hotel Touraine to the sidewalk below, a distance of nearly seventy feet. The woman was found on the sidewalk of Boylston and Tremont streets, at 12:15 o'clock this morning, and she was hurried in a police ambulance to the city hospital, where it was stated after a hasty examination, that she could not possibly live out the night. Nearly every bone in her body was broken and she also suffered internal injuries. She died this morning. Mrs. Piza with her husband, registered at the Touraine Monday, having come there from the New England sanitarium at Melrose, Mass., where she had been under treatment for nervousness.

The President.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 19 —President Roosevelt is taking a "day off." He left Sagamore Hill early this morning, with several members of his family, after telephoning to Secretary Loeb at the office that he would not need his services until evening. It is understood that the President and his family have gone on a picnic on the shore of the Sound, and as they did not take any secret service men or other retainers with them, they will be pratically lost to the "world" until such time as it pleases them to return. No alarm need be felt over this fact, however, for it is a foregone conclusion that were an emergency to suddenly arise, Secretary Loeb could very soon get into communication with the executive.

The Thaw Case.

New York, July 19 —When the writ is argued in the Supreme Court tomorrow to show cause why former Judge Olcott's law firm should not turn over to Clifford W. Hartridge, the newly appointed counsel of Harry Thaw, all the papers in the case, the lines of differences that have arisen between Thaw, his mother, Mrs. William Thaw, and counsel over the nature of the defense will be made plain. Thaw this morning was just as determined as ever, that he should go before the jury as a sane man, and fight for his life. His mother is equally determined that a commission should be appointed to inquire into his sanity, and has re-engaged Judge Olcott's firm to conduct the case. Mrs. Thaw will see her son today and plead with him to consent to the submission of the insanity plea. In the event of Thaw's final refusal Mrs. Thaw, as a mother and relative, would have the right to ask for the appointment of a commission. Neither Thaw nor his lawyer, Clifford W. Hartridge, could prevent this move, though with the aid of District Attorney Jerome it would be successfully blocked.

Justice McLean, in the Supreme Court, today, reserved decision in the motion to make permanent the writ of prohibition, secured by attorneys for Harry Thaw, to restrain the Court of General Sessions, the District Attorney's office and the grand jury from examining any witnesses in the Thaw case, except in the presence of the defendant. There was a long argument and counsel were given until tomorrow to submit briefs. A decision is expected next week.

Reconciliation Effected.

New York, July 19.—Daniel M. Brady, a wealthy brass manufacturer and railroad man, has effected a reconciliation with his wife, Sadie V. Singer Brady, who tried unsuccessfully three times, between February, 1905, and March of this year, to divorce him. News of the reconciliation reached here today with the arrival of the White Star line steamer Teutonic, upon which Mr. and Mrs. Brady sailed for Europe on their second honeymoon three weeks ago. At the conclusion of the last trial for divorce Brady became seriously ill. Mrs. Brady, who was living at the Savoy Hotel, heard that he might not recover. She considered it her duty to see him and went to his beside. While nursing him back to health the reconciliation was effected. In applying for the divorce Mrs. Brady alleged that her husband was guilty of improper conduct with Gertrude McKenzie, an actress.

Gibson, the lawyer, who was held by Coroner McDonald on Tuesday night in $25,000 bail, at the conclusion of the inquest into the death of Mrs. Alice Kinnan who was found murdered on the porch of her residence in the Bronx, on the night of June 8 last. Luke W. Stapleton, counsel for Gibson, stated to the court that there were no charges against his client. Assistant District Attorney Train, addressing the justice, said that an error had been made and he had no objection to the prisoner being discharged. Justice Blanchard then ordered the discharge of Gibson.

Madrid, July 19.—The newspaper El Liberal announces that it has heard on the best authority from San Sebastian, where King Alfonso has gone to spend the summer, that there has been an exchange of notes between the Spanish foreign minister and the American Ambassador, settling the line of a commercial treaty between Spain and the United States. The United States, it is stated, will concede an important reduction in duties on imported Spanish wines and brandies and pictures. Spain will accord to America the lowest tarift compatible with her treaties with other powers.

Pittsburg, July 19.—A new menace to child life was discovered today in the innocent appearing toy balloon. This toy has brought death to one small daughter of Herbert Richendicker, and another child is dying from arsenic poisoning. The dye coloring the wooden tubes, by means of which the balloons are inflated, is said to contain arsenic, and as the children blew and sucked these pipes the poison was swallowed. The toys were purchased on Decoration Day, and since that time the children have been ill.

New York Stock Market.

New York, July 19.—The stock market was generally heavy in the early trading, reflecting lower foreign markets. Arbitrage brokers sold a small amount of stocks for London, and there was some pressure of stock around the room through western houses, but generally the trading was professional and confined to the room traders, who had turned to the bear side and were working to bring out long stock at lower levels.

More Earthquake Shocks.

Forth Worth, Texas, July 19.—Two more severe earthquake shocks are reported from Socorro, New Mexico, extending south to El Paso. A street car was thrown from the track. E. M. Flit, who has just returned from Socorro, says: "While I was eating at the Winkler Hotel, a shock knocked all the plaster from the walls. When I tried to walk, it appeared as if the ground was rising up under my feet. Two-thirds of the houses in the town are cracked and tumbling down."

Albuquerque, N. M., July 19.—The center of the earthquake disturbance is a zone thirty miles long by about ten miles wide, running from the Ladrone Mountains southeast through Socorro, San Antonio and San Marchial This side of the belt the shocks have been hardly felt Each one is preceded by a loud rumbling like heavy thunder, which can be heard approaching from the northwest before it reaches Socorro. Senor Baca, of Socorro, until recently district attorney, is in the city with his family. He says that people are leaving on every train, and those who cannot ride on the railroad are leaving by wagon. About 2,000 people are camping out in tents and no one dares to go into the houses. Practically every residence and business block in the town has been irreparably damaged. There has been much distress among the people, who are camping in the open, as heavy rains have fallen in the last two days, one being the heaviest for fifty years. Most of the people are going to El Paso, although many are coming to Albuquerque. The shocks generally occur as short, sharp jerks, the ground seeming to slip violently. It is believed the adjustment of rock strata in the rugged Ladrone and Magdele mountains is the cause of the continued shocks. Provisions are growing scarce and real distress is found among the refugees. "The noise and the quakes are frightful," said Mrs. J. Lessen, a refugee from Socorro. "I have experienced earthquakes in California, but nothing so sickening as these prolonged rockings and jerkings of the earth at Socorro. Water placed in a bowl shows continued vibrations between the greater shocks, showing the earth is never still. Not a house in town is safe to enter and chimneys and walls topple with each recurrent tremor."

Arrival of Disabled Steamer

New York, July 19.—The disabled Fabre line steamer America, arrived this morning from Bermuda in tow of the wrecking steamer Rescue. All on board were well. She brought one cabin and 113 steerage passengers and a small general cargo. Two steerage passengers disembarked at Bermuda. The America, formerly the Britannia, sailed from Marseilles on June 3 in command of Captain Buhe. She called at St. Michaels, Azores, for passengers and sailed from that port on July 11 Her 113 steerage passengers consisted of various nationalities, mostly Greeks, Syrians, Italians and Portuguese, chiefly men with a scattering of women and children. Very few of these passengers could speak English. The America's shaft broke June 16 and she was later towed into Bermuda. The passengers complain bitterly of the manner in which they were treated after the accident.

Charged with Larceny.

Late yesterday evening a colored boy entered Mr. George Ayers' store on King street for the purpose of buying a bicycle The proprietor, after surveying the youth, was satisfied that the money he desired to invest in a wheel was not his own and sent to the station house for an officer. Chief Goods and Officer Roberts appeared and took the boy in charge. He was conducted to the station house where he gave his name as Mardock Brown. In answer to questions put to him he told unlikely stories, and upon being searched more money was found on him than most colored boys carry. He had purchased clothes and other articles before he entered Mr. Ayers' store. The matter was later explained by the arrival of Margaret Taylor, a relative of the boy, who had discovered that she had been robbed of $50.67, most of which belonged to a colored organization of which she was the treasurer. Brown was locked up and this morning, after having been brought before the Police Court, was turned over to his mother, who assured the court that she would administer a sound whipping to her offspring and in future keep him at home. Brown lives a short distance beyond the city limits, and should he be found here alone, he will be rearrested, as the warrant is still held.

Funeral.

The remains of Mr. Frank Hume, of the county, who died in Washington early on Tuesday morning, were brought here today on the 12 o'clock ferry boat and taken to Ivy Hill cemetery for interment, escorted by members of Lee Camp, of Washington, and Lee Camp, of this city, besides a number of relatives and friends. The pallbearers were nephews of the deceased and the services were conducted by Rev. Clement Brown assisted by Rev. Thomas W. Cooke, of Dayton, Ky. The funeral services took place at the Church of the Ascension, Twelfth street and Massachusetts avenue northwest Washington, this morning at 10 o'clock, and were well attended, a number of Alexandrians being present. The floral tributes were profuse and beautiful.

Suit for Maintenance.

Alleging that her husband deserted her without cause; that he stopped her credit at the grocery where an account had previously been kept by him, and that he refuses to contribute in any manner to her support, Mrs. Annie Kelly sued Edward Kelly in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, yesterday, for maintenance. The petition, which was filed by Attorney Irving Williamson, states that the couple were married in Alexandria in May, 1902, and lived together until in November, 1903. They have one child, a daughter, three years old. Mrs. Kelly charges that once when she met her husband on the street, in reply to her request to return home, or at least to properly provide for her and their child, an end was put to her appeals by a kick. She asks the court to award her the custody of the child.

Police Court.

[Justice W. A. Moore presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

John Hughes, arrested by Officer Bell charged with assaulting James Dodd, was fined $5

Isaiah Parker, colored, arrested by Officer Beach for disorderly conduct, was fined $5

Mardock Brown, colored, arrested by Chief Goods and Officer Roberts charged with stealing $50.67 from Margaret Taylor, had his case continued.

Columbia Fire Company.

A meeting of the Columbia Fire Company was held last night at which arrangements were made for their trip to the State Firemen's Convention to be held in Richmond next month. Mr. J. L. Duffy was elected vice president and J. F. Pettey, N. L. Smith, R. S. Merchant, N. C. Treakle and Walter J. Hughes, delegates, with Frank Travers, H. F. Mansfield, H. O. Phillips, jr., Everett Rogers and Anthony F. Bacigalupo, alternates to the committee.

A Stray Monkey.

A pet monkey, belonging to Mr. L. O. Topping, living near Cloud's Mill, a short distance west of this city, is missing. Jocko slept on a window sill Tuesday night, and, as usual, went out with the dogs yesterday morning to watch the cattle. When the dogs returned at dinner time, Jocko failed to accompany them, and all efforts to locate him have proved fruitless. The police of this city have been notified and are searching for the simiaen. The owner has offered a reward for its recovery.

PREPARING FOR ALEXANDRIA DAY.

The management of Luna Park makes the following announcement for Alexandria Day:

Elaborate arrangements are being made for the celebration of "Alexandria Day" on July 30 at Washington Luna Park. A list of speakers which has not yet been completed will include some of the country's leading statesmen and some of the names on the programme will be especially familiar to the population along the southern border. Half holiday will be declared in Alexandria and a number of the smaller cities along the Southern Railway will also declare a half holiday in order that their citizens may join in the general outpouring of good feeling and patriotic fellowship. The arrangements for the great event are in the hands of a committee of which Mayor Frederick J. Paff is chairman.

A great list of events for this red letter day in the history of Virginia has been prepared. Among other features Friendship Fire Engine Company, No. 1, of which George Washington was an active member, will put out an actual fire with the engine which Washington bought for the company in 1775, one year after the organization. It is related that in the last year of Washington's life there was a fire near the market house in Alexandria. The engine was poorly manned and a number of well-dressed society men were standing around with their hands in their pockets. Washington rode up to them and exclaimed: "Why are you idle there, gentlemen? It is your business to lead in these matters."

Throwing his bridal to his groomsman he jumped off, seized the arms of the engine and started up the street, followed by a crowd that gave the venerable old piece of machinery such a shaking as it had never had before. This is the same engine which will be seen in operation at Luna Park on "Alexandria Day."

Another feature of the day will be a reproduction of the Custer massacre. The Red Men of Alexandria will take the part of the blood-thirsty Indians in full costume and the Alexandria Light Infantry will impersonate the American troops. All of the scenes and incidents of that famous action will be faithfully reproduced. During the day a great carnival will be held and it will be so generic in character as to appeal to everybody on the grounds. Confetti will be thrown and on the dancing pavilion the celebrated "Shadow Dance" will be given with all the calcium light effects which have made this carnival feature so popular throughout the country.

The railroads will co-operate with the citizens' committee by offering reduced rates for parties, and everything possible will be done by the Luna Park management to make this the greatest day in the history of this new enterprise of Mr. Frederick Ingersoll, of Pittsburg.

Lunatic on the Roof.

John Daly, a patient in the violent ward in the Dunning Insane Asylum, 12 miles from Chicago, escaped from the attendants yesterday and climbed to the roof of the four story building. He ran along the edge of the roof shouting "They're after me" and threatening to leap to the ground if any of the attendants came through the skylight to get him. The asylum authorities finally sent for the fire department, and when the firemen arrived with ladders Daly was sitting on the edge of the coping, with his feet dangling over. He threatened to jump if a ladder were raised, and finally the attempt to catch him was abandoned and the firemen and attendants settled down to a siege. After being on the roof eight hours Daly was induced to come down. One of the asylum attendants climbed up to where he was sitting and told him that he was insane too and that they had a good chance to escape. Daly was pleased with the scheme and came down to the ground. He was locked up.

Foreign Intervention Threatened.

The Paris Journal says it is in a position to affirm that in the course of the interview at Schoenbrunn Palace, near Vienna, between the Emperor of Austria-Hungary and the German Emperor. Their majesties deliberated on the means to adopt in case of the outbreak of a revolution in Russia, Emperor Nicholas being advised of the general nature of the deliberations. It was decided in principle that Germany and Austria will intervene in Poland with armed forces in case the Russian Emperor finds it impossible to maintain the control of Poland, the three Emperors thereafter acting in concert for the maintenance of the status quo of their respective Polish possessions. The Journal further asserts that this understanding amounts to a regular holy alliance between the three Emperors.

DIED.

On Wednesday, July 18, 1906, CHARLES W. LYLES, beloved husband of Ada Lyles. The funeral will take place from his late home, 916 Duke street, tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at 4 o'clock.—[Washington papers please copy.

At her late home, 122 S. Fairfax street, Wednesday, July 18, at 10 a. m., Mrs. ALCINDA JANE DRISCOLL, wife of the late Charles Morgan Driscoll, in the 69th year of her age. Funeral will take place Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Friends and acquaintances are requested to attend.—[Washington papers please copy.

Mrs. E. L. Duke on Warpath.

Mrs. Alice Webb Duke, whose husband, Brodie L. Duke, of New York, made sensational charges in his divorce suit against her, is now in Chicago, completing preparations for a bitter fight to vindicate her character. Witnesses have been gathered throughout the United States, several of them in Chicago who are relied on not only to vindicate Mrs. Duke, but to make disclosures in comparison with which the accusations heard in the divorce suit will appear insignificant. Expose of revelry which is expected to throw a new light on the case is planned by Mrs. Duke. Former United States Senator William E. Mason has been retained as her counsel. He will go to New York to take part in the contest.

Mrs. Duke declared yesterday she would prove that certain witnesses who testified against her in the divorce suit committed perjury. She said the charges were the outgrowth of a conspiracy.

"I will prove that perjury was resorted to against me in the hearing in which Judge Blanchard granted the interlocutory decree," said Mrs. Duke. "I will show that a conspiracy caused the perjury. The tobacco trust has been unable to get control of my company, and it is combining the fight on my company with one on me."

Mrs. Duke formerly lived in Chicago. She was married about 16 months ago. She has been interested in the tobacco business for several years and was an active member of the Taylor-Webb Company, of Texas. She is now at the head of the A. Webb-Duke Tobacco Company.

Accidents at Horse Show.

The opening day of the Manassas Horse Show yesterday was marked by a probably fatal accident in the green steeplechase, which occurred late in the afternoon. "Jake," a horse owned by John T. Smallwood, of Thoroughfare, while leading his field, fell at the water jump in front of the grand stand, and threw his rider under the very hoofs of the horses racing behind. The boy, struggling to his feet, was struck on the head by one of the jumpers, and was last night thought to be in a dying condition. He is Edward Gray, of Greenwich, Prince William county, and a nephew of the owner of the horse that threw him.

Two other falls were also recorded—Robert Young, riding "Daisy," and John G. Everhart, riding "Longfellow," in the hunter classes. Fortunately neither rider was much hurt.

The show closed today.

Was Belt Married.

A hidden romance in the life of Alfred Belt, the British multi millionaire whose death occurred in London last Monday, was revealed yesterday when it was found that in his application for a life-insurance policy in the Equitable, made in 1888, Mr. Belt declared his intention of marrying, the woman's name being given as Elizabeth Bennett, and that the policy subsequently issued was made payable to "my wife, Elizabeth Bennett Belt."

At the time of the medical examination by the company's physicians, however, Mr. Belt is said to have declared himself unmarried. In the many reposts published from time to time of the "diamond king's" engagement to this or that woman the name of Elizabeth Bennett was never mentioned, and much mystery exists as to who she may be and as to whether or not the South African millionaire married her.

THURSDAY EVENING, JULY 19, 1906.

Mitchell Bryan's Mate.

It became known at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., yesterday that mineworkers and leaders of other labor organizations throughout the country are organizing a movement to have John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers of America, nominated by the democratic party for Vice President, providing Bryan is selected as the nominee for President. The labor men believe that Mitchell would get the support of all union workers throughout the country, without reference to party, and it is evident that they also believe that in the event of his election he would be in line for a nomination for the presidency. The movement is meeting with great favor among the mineworkers of the Wilkes-Barre region, who have already nominated several of their leaders for Congress and the State Legislature, and are thoroughly imbued with the idea that the only way to obtain what they desire is by sending their own men to the legislature. Mitchell declines to make any comment regarding the matter, nor will he say whether he is pleased or displeased with the agitation in his favor

Quo Warranto Proceedings.

Quo warranto proceedings have been brought by the commonwealth's attorney to annul the charter granted by the State Corporation Commission to the Crawford Social Club, of Portsmouth. The State's contention is that the club has admitted members free of dues to the number of a thousand and that Druggist S. T. Hagger has been enabled thereby to sell soda water and cigars on Sunday in defiance of the blue law order of Mayor Reid. The club contends it is a bona fide organization. It has engaged counsel and will resist the proceedings. The organization does not dispense intoxicating liquors, but serves its members with soda water on Sunday. Mr. Hagger has been arrested and fined in the Police Court nine times, but he would not promise the court to close on Sunday, claiming his charter right.

FINANCIAL

Is Dependent Upon You

And you should think of the safety of your money. Every day you hear something that strongly emphasizes the fact that you cannot be too careful in selecting investments for your savings. Any business man will tell you that it is better to be contented with 3 PER CENT. INTEREST and the absolute safety afforded by an account in the SAVINGS DEPARTMENT of this strong institution, than to risk your money in schemes that offer a higher rate and doubtful security. It is useless to attempt to save your money at home; the temptation to borrow from the fund is ever present; the only way to save successfully is to seek the protection and advantages afforded by this well known and conservative institution and deposit your money where it will earn interest compounded—you will then think twice before disturbing the account. Why not save your money? Open an account with us TODAY—it's simple and ONE DOLLAR will start you.
